

LUFTHANSA

makes flying
a wonderful experience
by giving you the

BOEING
jet INTERCONTINENTAL

Speed without the sensation of speed . . .

Every hour brings you nearly 600 miles closer to your destination. Beneath you, continents shrink away - and distances which only fifty years ago took weeks of arduous traveling to cross are now bridged in a few short, pleasurable hours. Flying high above the weather, at altitudes of 3,300 to 4,000 feet, the giant Boeing takes you on a smooth, noiseless ride - a thrill you will never forget.

SUPERCARGO

Air Cargo Service - faster than ever . . .

There is ample room in the vast cargo compartments of the Boeing Jet Intercontinental for your rush shipments. Now as before, ship your freight via LUFTHANSA Supercargo Service.

LUFTHANSA

Comfort such as you have never known before in the air . . .

There is no vibration, no noise, no pounding
aboard the Intercontinental to give you a headache and wear you out. The sound of the four giant power plants is far behind you. The soft,
wide seats, the generous size and elegant decor
of the cabin offer you a maximum of comfort.

LUFTHANSA is famous for outstanding service . . .

Awards, prizes and gold medals have attested time
and again to the gourmet's delights dreamed up by LUFTHANSA's chefs. But aboard the Boeing Jet Intercontinental LUFTHANSA's superb meals and snacks taste even better. The unexcelled cuisine and tranquil atmosphere which distinguish
this flying luxury restaurant, and the charm
of the hostesses who are at your beck and call,
will bring home to you that in the jet age, too,
LUFTHANSA excels in service.

LUFTHANSA offers you without surcharge a special feature on every Boeing Jet Intercontinental flight:
The fabulous SENATOR Service in First Class.
Take advantage of this unusual service and book
